

STATEMENT OF VOTES

ON

IMPORTANT PROPOSITIONS

DURING THE

Second Session of the Thirty-fifth Congress.

SENATE.

THE following table embraces the vote in the Senate on four of the most important propositions voted on by it during its last legislative session.

THE FRENCH SPOILIATION BILL, which passed the Senate January 10, 1859, involved something like $3,000,000.

THE Bill granting Lands to the States for AGRICULTURAL COLLEGES, which passed the Senate February 7, 1859, would if it had become a law disposed of about 6,000,000 acres of the public lands.

THE CUBA BILL proposed to place at the disposal of the President $30,000,000 for the acquisition of Cuba. Mr. Brown, of Miss., who moved to lay the bill on the table, was its friend. He did so merely to get a test vote upon it, having voted against the motion himself. This vote was had on the 25th of February, 1859.

THE TREASURY NOTE AMENDMENT was to relieve the country from its financial embarrassment.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The following are the subjects of the subjoined Statement of Votes in the House of Representatives, Second Session Thirty-Fifth Cong.

No. 1.—The OLD SOLDIERS' BILL, voted on in the House, December 22, 1858, said by its author, the Hon. John H. Savage, to involve the expenditure of $1,500,000 annually; by the Commissioner of Pensions $8,800,000 per annum.

No. 2.—January 27, 1859. On the motion to strike out the following clause from the CIVIL APPROPRIATION BILL:

“To enable the President of the United States to carry into effect the act of Congress of 3d March, 1819, and any subsequent acts now in force for the suppression of the slave trade, $75,000: Provided, That so much of said appropriation as may be required to pay expenses already incurred may be used from and after the passage of this act.”

No. 3.—February 1, 1859. Mr. Grow's HOMESTEAD BILL, to give to every head of a family, who is a citizen of the United States, or who may have declared his intention to become such, 160 acres of land.

No. 4.—February 12, 1859. The PREAMBLE to the Bill admitting OREGON, which is as follows:

Whereas the people of Oregon have framed, ratified, and adopted a Constitution of State government which is republican and in conformity with the Constitution of the United States, and have applied for admission into the Union on an equal footing with the other States: Therefore—

No. 5.—February 12, 1859. On the BILL TO ADMIT OREGON.

No. 6.—February 14, 1859. On the motion to suspend the rules to enable Mr. Phelps, of Missouri, to introduce a BILL to revive and continue in force two years an act to authorize the issue of TREASURY NOTES.

No. 7.—February 21, 1859. On the motion to suspend the rules to enable Mr. Phillips, of Pennsylvania, to introduce a BILL to pay outstanding TREASURY NOTES, to authorize a LOAN, and to regulate and fix the duties on IMPORTS, and for other purposes.

No. 8.—February 21, 1859. On motion to suspend the rules to enable the Committee on Commerce to report a BILL Repealing the FISHERY BOUNTIES, amounting to $400,000.

No. 9.—February 26, 1859. On passing the BILL granting to the States near 6,000,000 acres of the Public Land for AGRICULTURAL COLLEGES, notwithstanding the Veto of the President.

No. 10.—March 2, 1858. On the motion of Mr. Davis of Indiana, to suspend the rules to enable him to introduce a BILL repealing the restrictive clause in the ENGLISH BILL, which prohibits the people of Kansas from forming a State Constitution until it shall appear by census, duly and legally taken, that the population equals or exceeds the ratio of representation required for a member of Congress.

No. 11.—March 3, 1859. On the Amendment of Mr. Phelps, continuing the TREASURY NOTE LAW.

No. 12.—On the following Resolution of Mr. Grow, with reference to the POST OFFICE APPROPRIATION BILL:

Resolved, That House bill No. 872, making appropriations for defraying the expenses of the Post Office Department for the year ending June 30, 1860, with the Senate amendments thereto, be returned to the Senate, as section thirteenth of said amendments is in the nature of a revenue bill.

THE POLITICAL TEXT-BOOK OR ENCYCLOPEDIA.

We desire to call particular attention to the advertisement of Mr. M. W. Cluskey, in another column, of his new Political Text-Book, now offered for sale. Mr. Cluskey kindly placed upon our table a copy of his work as soon as it was issued from the press. We have had ample time to examine it, and several occasions to refer to it for information. We unhesitatingly pronounce it one of the most convenient and useful books of reference that we have ever met with.

It will be recollected that Mr. Cluskey prepared a book for the last presidential campaign, which he called the Electoral Hand-Book, and which was used to great advantage in the canvass throughout the country. Indeed, the great popularity and utility of his first work, and the constant calls for it, even since the campaign has been ended, have suggested the plan and the preparation of this second one. His last work is very complete. He has rearranged the whole matter of his first work, thrown it into the encyclopedia form, added an immense amount of matter, made a copious index to the work, by which anything wanted may be found in a moment, with clear and ample explanatory notes of his own, by which everything obscure is rendered plain and intelligible.

To the politician, the editor, and all who desire information on the leading party measures and topics of the times, this book will be found of the greatest convenience and value. The author has performed his task with decided judgment and ability, and we trust that he will meet with a corresponding remuneration for his labor.

The National Intelligencer published the above from the Union, with a complimentary endorsement.

From the N. Y. Daily News.

CLUSKEY'S POLITICAL TEXT-BOOK OR ENCYCLOPEDIA.

It will prove the most important political vade mecum ever presented to the American public. This work is gotten up in alphabetical order, and contains the substance, or the whole text, of every great question now agitating, or which is likely for a long time to come to agitate, the nation.

Among matters now challenging consideration, it contains all the opinions of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, and a synopsis of everything in our political history touching the slavery question. Banks, tariffs, and a host of other important questions come in for their share of attention.

The reader will be astonished at the mass of matter it contains. It is a perfect compendium of American political history, and, to all interested therein, presents as many attractions as the most fascinating woman does to the lover of fiction. In short, it is a most important and instructive work.
